

Information about The Redhill Academy Trust

At the Redhill Academy Trust, we have four principles that guide everything our academies aim to achieve:

- High expectations of all pupils
- Valuing and celebrating academic achievement
- Outstanding teaching for all pupils
- Widening pupils' experiences through a range of extra-curricular activities including sports and the performing arts

Redhill was the first secondary school in Nottinghamshire to gain an "outstanding" Ofsted rating for the quality of teaching. This has now been achieved twice in succession.

The Redhill Academy Trust was officially formed in 2010. The Trust has slowly expanded and now incorporates:

- The Redhill Academy
- The Carlton Academy
- Hall Park Academy
- Oakwood Academy
- Top Valley Academy
- South Nottinghamshire Academy
- Colonel Frank Seely School
- Bolsover School
- Carlton Junior Academy
- Carlton Infant Academy
- Robert Mellors Primary Academy

The executive leadership team for the Trust – comprising the Heads of each individual school and the Executive Principal and Primary Director of Education meet on a regular basis to agree policy and overall strategy.

Redhill was designated as a Teaching School in March 2012 and has used this status to build on its reputation for effective working with other schools and providing quality CPD for both teaching and support staff at every stage of their career. The Redhill Teaching School Alliance currently comprises 8 strategic partners and 29 schools in total. Initial Teacher Training has inevitably become a key focus of our work as a Teaching School and we have invested heavily in programmes such as PGCE, School Direct and Teach First.

Importantly, the success of our Trust and its growing reputation for raising the achievement of young people in the schools we work with means that we are able to attract and retain quality staff at all levels. This in turn has enabled us to build up our capacity to undertake the vital outreach work which is the key to improving standards in schools joining the Redhill Academy Trust. We are committed to recruiting and retaining the best teachers and offer our staff an extensive, widely-praised Continuous Professional Development programme.
